Arizona Home Remodeling Contractor, Republic West, Hosts Charitable Event to Benefit Domestic Violence Shelter

Scottsdale, Ariz. September 27, 2010 – Arizona home remodeling contractor, Republic West, hosted a charitable housewarming party to benefit Chrysalis, a Phoenix-based domestic violence prevention and support agency.

The event, which took place on Friday, September 24, 2010, was hosted at the Republic West Showroom where the Republic West family, with the help of their many guests, enjoyed wine and hors d'oeuvres while donating money and gifts that helped outfit Chrysalis's new shelter with living essentials. Gifts included items such as strollers, thermometers, crib sheets, telephones, brooms, dishes, silverware, irons and more.

“Republic West deeply appreciates everyone who participated in our charitable housewarming party,” said Linda Zimmerman, co-owner of Republic West, a leading Arizona home remodeling company. “Together we were able to support a very worthy cause and help Chrysalis stock a domestic violence shelter with the essentials for everyday living.”

Republic West received support from a number of their business partners including John Rothstein of Arizona Benefits Advantage, Sheila Kloefkorn of KEO Marketing, Elliot Zirlin of Blue Sky Marketing, Scott Voyles of Masterbrand Cabinets, Richard Walz of WalzCraft Cabinets, John Miller of Rainbow Air and Al Kushinsky of McGladrey and Pullen Accountants.

Chrysalis is Arizona's leading broad-based domestic violence agency dedicated to stopping terror in the home and ending the cycle of domestic violence. They operate emergency shelter and transitional housing; offer outpatient counseling; victim advocacy and lay legal advocacy; and operates an Offender Treatment program.

Since its inception in 1995, Republic West has “given back” to the community and charitable organizations on a regular basis. It is a part of who they are and they are very proud of their service. Republic West takes giving back very seriously and has taken part in numerous charitable projects including ongoing donations of building supplies to Stardust Foundation, raising money to fight child hunger, supporting needy families in Phoenix for Christmas, ongoing donations to St. Vincent DePaul food bank, supporting Scottsdale little league and many more.
